Answer:

The deadline for responses is April 23, 2012 at 9 AM EST. The second date listed is the archive date for the website.

Question 7. Is the project a small business set-aside?

Answer:

The Market Survey is designed to help determine the acquisition strategy for this requirement. That strategy has not been decided at this time. A decision about set-asides has not been determined.

Question 8. Would the FAA consider two different entities as providers for which one would provide the training only and the other would be responsible for the meeting space and lodging component?

Answer:

Two entities could form a team arrangement. Two or more companies could form a partnership or joint venture to act as a potential prime contractor; or a potential prime contractor could enter into an agreement with one or more other companies to have them act as subcontractors under a specific contract.

Question 9. Would New York City, Alexandria (VA), Atlanta, Chicago, and San Francisco be sufficient in terms of geographical locations?

Answer:

At this time the FAA has not determined if the service will be provided at one geographic location or multiple geographic locations. At this time, any location in the lower 48 states within "reasonable distance of a national or regional airport" is acceptable.

Question 10. Is the AAA Diamond Rating a requirement, or simply a guideline?

Answer:

It is just a guideline, not a requirement.
